

2027 Murray Goodman Scientific Excellence and Mentorship Award

Call for Nominations

Endowed by Zelda Goodman (2007)

The 2027 Murray Goodman Award recognizes an individual who has demonstrated career-long research excellence in the field of peptide science. In addition, the selected individual should have been responsible for significant mentorship and training of students, post-doctoral fellows, and/or other co-workers. The Awards Committee may also consider any important contributions to the peptide science community made by the candidate, for example through leadership in the American Peptide Society and/or its journals.

The 2027 Goodman Award will be presented at the 30th American Peptide Symposium in Boston, Massachusetts, June 20-24, 2027. The awardee must be able to attend the American Peptide Symposium.

Nominations for the Goodman Award should include the following items, assembled into a single PDF file:

1. A letter of nomination from the primary nominator (1,000 word limit).
2. A supporting letter from an established scholar (500 word limit).
3. A supporting letter from a former student, post-doctoral associate or other co-worker of the nominee (500 word limit).
4. The nominee's Curriculum Vitae and list of publications.

Nominating documents should be submitted by September 1, 2026.

Previous nominations for the 2025 Goodman Award will be reviewed for a second time, but it is preferred that these nominations be updated.

Individuals contemplating a nomination are encouraged to contact the Awards Committee Chair with questions. To see the full list of past recipients visit:
